Stefan Bogdanovich is an Associate Attorney and a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US) whose complex commercial litigation practice includes media/entertainment, false advertising, and IP disputes, and class action litigation. He enjoys developing and executing strategic solutions to difficult legal problems. He has experience obtaining and enforcing injunctions and favorable judgments, negotiating settlements, and appealing final orders.

Stefan earned his J.D. at the University of Southern California, where he participated in the Hale Moot Court Honors Program, the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot, and the Trial Team. He received the highest grade in his class in three subjects, including First Amendment Law.
